

UNIQUE RACE FOR PHYSICAL DISABILITIES.

TOBY WHEELER

Toby is a young man who has Cerebral Palsy. Toby feels like nothing is ever impossible, despite his disability, he is determined and focused. Just a few years ago Toby started walking with the use of a specialised walking frame.

Toby is organising a unique race for people with physical disabilities. Giving others in the same situation a chance to enter a race.

'The Wheeler Way'

A 400m walking event for those with physical disabilities raising money for Team Angus. The race is an achievement of distance not time.

Team Angus is a charity close to Toby's heart raising money to support Angus who is a young boy with Cerebral Palsy.

Two races held, participants split into ability groups, depending on GMFCS ensuring a fair advantage for all.

Flat, indoor track with changing places and hoist available.

Who can enter?

Participants 16 years and over.
